FLOOR DEBATE

April 13, 2004 LB 439A

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker, the A bill simply follows the logic of and the fact that what we are doing here is dividing out DAS expenses and simply, not increasing General Funds, but allocating to the new Office of the Capitol Administrator, those portions of funds that would be necessary to run that part of the operation. DAS, it will be housed in DAS. DAS will be performing certain of the functions, so the total effect of what is...what looks like a very complicated A bill, the total effect of it is that about $20,000 in revolving funds in each of the two fiscal years will be allocated to the Office of the Capitol Administrator, and no additional General Funds will be spent in either '04 or '05, or '05 or '06. So it doesn't have a General Fund price tag. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Beutler. You've heard the opening on the motion to return. I see no discussion. Senator Beutler, you're recognized to close. And he waives.
